HOCKEY STINGERS WIN 9TH STRAIGHT

The Concordia University Stingers men's varsity hockey team downed the University of Ottawa Gee-Gees 6-4 last Wednesday evening (March 7th) to win the best of five Q.U.H.L. finals 3-0, and capture a 9th consecutive league championship.

The Stingers will now advance to the C.I.A.U. National Tournament which will be held March 16, 17 and 18 at the Colisée in Trois-Rivieres.

Concordia was hard pressed in the deciding game as Ottawa came back from a 3-0 deficit to tie the game, early in the third period. Then Mark Kosturik barged in a Frankie Morris rebound with fewer than 8 minutes to play; and Gilles Hébert scored his second goal of the game 4 minutes later on a beautiful individual effort to put it out of reach.

Brent Cater, Randy Edmonds and David Stott also scored for the Stingers who were outshot 35-31. Stinger goaltender Stéphane Héon was forced to make several outstanding saves, including three break-a-ways, as Ottawa played its best game of the series.

Concordia will open the C.I.A.U. Tournament on Friday, March 16th at 5:30 p.m. against a yet to be named opponent. Concordia's second game will be played on Saturday at 1 p.m.. Host Trois-Rivieres will play at 8:30 p.m. on Friday and 4 p.m. on Saturday.

Should the teams split the two games, overtime will be played to determine who advances to Sunday's final. The Championship game will get underway Sunday at 1 p.m. and will be televised locally on C.T.V.
